5 SHIPS LOST IN STORM SWEEPING PACIFIC COAST

WORST GALE SINCE 1898, LOSS SHIPPING LARGEST IN A SINGLE DAY

SO MANY WRECKS WITHOUT LOSS OF LIFE IS UNPARAL- LELED, ASSERTED

(By United Press)
San Francisco, Feb. 16.—Every life of those imperiled when five ships were lost in the storm that swept the Pacific coast yesterday, was saved.

Heroic rescues will go down in sea history marking the rescue of several score of persons after the radio had called aid for the sinking or stranded vessels.

Fears that loss of life might be heavy were allayed when the "voice in the storm", the crackling wireless waves that played such an important part in the rescue, announced that the cutter Algonquin had saved the lives of the crews of the Tuscan Prince, last distressed ship heard from.

Heroic labors on the part of the Algonquin crew marked this rescue.
Small boats were launched in a boiling surf which was whipped by the icy gale that thundered down the coast. The boat's crew maneuvered among treacherous hidden rocks, growing nearer and nearer to the sinking freighter. The crew of the latter clung to the decks, believing she would break up any minute. The Tuscan Prince was a total loss.

The crew of the steamship Santa Rita which crashed on the rocks while going to the assistance of the burning steamer Nika, faced death until Victor Huatoth volunteered and swam ashore with a life line, saving the entire crew.

The crew of the Nika was rescued
in a heroic fashion by the cutter Snohomish, after which the vessel, a wooden one, burned to the water's edge, a total loss.

The motor ship Coolcha also was a total loss in the storm, her crew being saved by the steamer Algerine.
A three masted vessel is reported to have gone ashore on Victoria Island, but details are lacking, and is still unidentified.

Shipping men declared the storm yesterday was the worst since 1898 and that the loss of shipping was the largest ever reported in a single day. It is believed the wrecking of five vessels without a single loss of life is unparalleled.

EGYPT MAY BE A FASHION AID

(By United Press)
Boston, Feb. 16.—Speaking of Egypt—tut tut.

The hand of an ancient Pharaoh shall not rise from the desert sands to dictate the design of Milady's chapeau this season—or at least probably not.

Snakes and sand storm, neck claws and lambs feet have no place on women's hats. So say the milliners who are displaying their creations at the annual fashion show here today.

Far be it from the milliner to cast any reflections upon the king who was a patriot in his day, but they have already become inspired over the tall feathers of the common American rooster of the barn yard, not to mention duck wings and the down of geese's neck, and also the influence of the orchard and truck garden which are seen in the latest hat designs.

Some of the creations are veritable dreams of a vegetation, while others follow closely the familiar painting:
"A plate of fruit" seen on so many dining walls in the great American home. Echoes of the old days are materialized in one creation, the "Bacchus hat" which is daintily decorated with grapes of luscious luster, a bootleggers vision.

Too Hard a Job.
A man tries to keep the dust and grime off the books on his bookshelves just so long, and then gives up in despair.

STATE SENATE PASSES BILL WHICH LEGALIZES STATE WIDE BOXING BY VOTE 39 TO 24; NOW GOES TO HOUSE

(By United Press)
St. Paul, Feb. 16.—The state senate today passed the bill legalizing state wide boxing, by a vote of 39 to 24.
The measure now goes to the house.
After passage, Senator A. T. Buck-ler, of Crookston, produced a pair of boxing gloves from his desk. "These were given me by my constituents when I came down here to defend myself," he said.

The bill authorizes boxing bouts in the cities of the fourth class.
Rural Credits Legislation
St. Paul, Feb. 16.—Rural credits legislation was on special order in the house of the legislature this afternoon.
Two factions were working on a compromise today in an effort to avoid a clash on the floor.

The administration faction lead by Representative Wilkinson is supporting a bill providing for three salaried commissioners appointed by the governor to administer the new rural credits department legalized by the voters last November.

Another faction, under the leadership of Nels T. Moen, of Ottertail county, and Representative Dahle, of Fillmore county, advocating the bill provided for only one salaried officer.
It was understood there would be a compromise on two salaried officers, the attorney general or state auditor to serve in the third capacity without increased compensation.

FRUIT LINER IN SPECTACULAR FIRE

(By United Press)
New York, Feb. 16.—The steamer
Sagua of the American fruit line caught fire in its dock in Hoboken today and blazing furiously broke from its moorings, and started drifting out into the Hudson in the path of other vessels.

The fire boat Washington, started in pursuit and when almost alongside the Sagua in which a large quantity of oil was burning, threw a hook and line aboard.

Four men climbed one at a time hand over hand up the icy rope and across twenty feet of intervening waters, and made fast a steel cable with which the blazing ship was towed back and made fast to its pier.

ARREST, RESTRAINT, RESISTANCE KEEPS GROWING IN VALLEY

FRENCH SOLDIERS WITH FIXED BAYONETS COMMANDEER RESTAURANTS

GENERAL STRIKE OF FRENCH COAL MINERS NOW ADMIT- TED SERIOUS

(By United Press)
Dusseldorf, Feb. 16.—Arrests, restrictions and resistance in the Ruhr multiplied today until many districts were in a state scarcely distinguishable from that of war. Conditions were worse at Essen where two infantry companies were sent out to occupy the town hall and French soldiers with fixed bayonets joyfully helped themselves in shops and restaurants. The tension increased throughout the day. German nationalists were reported preparing a demonstration against the invaders and the French took extra-ordinary precautions, fearing a coup.

General Fournier sought to break the shop keepers boycott against the French troops by permitting the soldiers to break in and take what they pleased. Poulous had a riotous time in cafes, drinking free beer and Viquor. Officers requisitioned by force whatever they required.

The same severe conditions visited upon Essen will probably be imposed at Dortmund by tomorrow in view of increased resistance to the population there after French troops were partly withdrawn from the city. It was stated the chief burgomaster probably would be arrested as a result of his refusal to obey orders of General DeGoutte.

Loire Region on Strike
Paris, Feb. 16.—The general strike of French coal miners which began today is serious, it was semi-officially admitted this afternoon.
Seventy-five per cent of mine workers in the Loire region are out, about twenty per cent in the Nord,
and ten per cent elsewhere.

Franco-British Conference
London, Feb. 16.—The latest Franco-British conference ended abruptly today reported in disagreement with the British refusing the French permission to run troop manned trains through the Cologne area.

Optimism expressed earlier in the day that M. LeTroquer French minister of public works would be successful in his mission, was dampened with the parley apparently collapsed.

The entente survived the breakdown, however, it was authoritativly indicated. The French will return to Paris tonight. Premier Bonnar Law, Marquis Curzon and Lord Derby met with LeTroquer and General Payot at 10 Downing street today and the French renewed their request for permission to run coal trains from the Ruhr with French guards through the area held by the British on the Rhine. It was said the British regard this as an infringement on their sovereignty in the occupied area.

Claim 100,000 Miners Out

Paris, Feb. 16.—Headquarters of the unitary federation of miners announced today that 100,000 miners have answered the general strike call and walked out. Employers declare that but a small percentage of French mine workers are out, and that they are mainly communists.

The general strike order was confirmed at a meeting of the unitary federation which represents extremists, last night after some men already had quit work, and delegates left early today for various centers of the Loire basin to organize rallies.
The employers gave in to the extent of agreeing to discuss the question of wages which precipitated the general strike with the men's leaders.
Meanwhile the miners strike in Belgium has been successful to a cer-

SEN. BORAH HAS PLAN FOR OUTLAWING WAR AND SETTLING OF INTERNATIONAL DISPUTES BY LAW BY A WORLD COURT

(By United Press)
Washington, Feb. 16.—Senator Borah will take to the people of the United States and perhaps to those of Europe his plan for outlawing war and the settlement of international disputes upon a basis of law by a world court.

Borah's latest plan for settling world problems is by far the most ambitious and idealistic he has yet proposed.

Its introduction in the senate this week caused some of his colleagues to accuse Borah of becoming "more of an international idealist than Woodrow Wilson".

In an exclusive interview with the United Press today Borah said his plan may sound idealistic but that it is the only practical way to world peace.

The senator is considering a trip to Europe this summer. If he makes it, he will place his proposal squarely before the people of the old world.

offered the strikers a five per cent increase.

German Police Shoot 2 French Soldiers

Essen, Feb. 16.—German police shot two French soldiers in the Zel-eroshof hotel here last night. French troops in the hotel insisted upon being served despite the boycott which was in effect against them. German policemen entered and fired upon the French, wounding two.

COMMONS BACKS LAW'S RUHR POLICY

(By United Press)
London, Feb. 16.—The House of Commons today gave Premier Bonar Law a vote of confidence on his Ruhr policy.

A labor amendment to the resolution adopting the policy outlined by the king's speech from the throne at the opening of parliament was defeated 277 to 180.

CLAIMS WE'RE TIED TO BRITAIN

SENATOR LAFOLLETTE MAKES AN IMPASSIONED SPEECH TO THE SENATE

(By United Press)
Washington, Feb. 16.—Funding of the British debt on the terms proposed means that the United States will be pledged to secure territorial integrity of the vast British empire for the next 62 years, Senator LaFollette, Wisconsin, declared today in a speech to the senate opposing ratification of the amendment.

"We will be bound to the wheels of the imperialistic chariot with golden chains and all those who question our participation in such enterprises will be told they are unpatriotic," said LaFollette.

INSTANTLY KILLED AT ARMOUR MINE

An accident that resulted in the death of Ole Oleson occurred at the Armour No. 2 mine early Wednesday morning. Mr. Oleson together with Carl Ploto was at the mouth of the shaft closing the doors over the entrance. Mr. Oleson has attended to this job himself and had always given the hoisting engineer notice not to move the skip without his orders.
In the morning he failed to notify the engineer and the skip was sent up. The skip threw Mr. Oleson between the door and the cage way and as soon as it had passed, Mr. Oleson dropped down the shaft. He fell a distance of approximately four hundred feet, but it is believed that he was either killed by the door or knocked unconscious before he fell.
His partner stopped the skip within thirty feet, but it was too late to save the injured man.

Ole Oleson was forty-eight years old, having been born in Sunne, Sweden in September, 1874. He came to this country in his early manhood.
In 1909, he was married in Negaunee Michigan and besides his wife, he is survived by two step-children and a daughter about twelve years old. He also has two brothers, Nels Oleson of Crosby and Magnus Oleson of Sunne, Sweden. His sister Mrs. Gust
Peterson died five years ago. Mrs.
Oleson and their daughter live in So-attle, Wash. and no funeral arrangements will be made until they are heard from.

Mr. Oleson came to the Cuyuna range in 1910 and worked at the Kennedy mine for a year. From there he came to Armour No. 2 and had been with them since 1911. He was a very quiet man, a very valuable employee, and highly respected by all who knew him.—Ironton News.

RESENT EXPELLING AMERICAN CONSULS

(By United Press)
Washington, Feb. 15.—The United States has prepared a sharp note to Great Britain denouncing the attitude of the later government in expelling two American consuls from Newcastle, England, it was learned today.

The note, signed by Secretary of State Hughes, takes no trouble to conceal the displeasure of the American government at the stand taken by Great Britain in connection with her action some months ago in cancelling the exequators or recognition of the United States consuls at Newcastle.

It is understood that Secretary Hughes shortly will publish the American note making plain the extreme annoyance and displeasure of this government.

The Newcastle incident has caused an unusual amount of friction between the two governments.

INSPECT NEW MODELS

About 600 People Visited Sales Rooms of Ransford Garage in Past Two Days

Approximately six hundred people visited the sales rooms of the Ransford Garage the past two days to inspect the 1923 models in the new Star, Durant and Studebaker cars, which are now on display there.

This interest is quite phenomenal for so early in the season, and at a time when Brainerd and the Northwest was gripped in the throes of the worst storm of the winter.

Great enthusiasm is shown over all the models at the Ransford Garage, but more especially over the new Star, which is making its maiden bow in this locality. The Star, while low in price, has many of the high-class features embodied in the more expensive cars.

A. J. Welliver, proprietor of the Ransford Garage, has been conducting an auto show all his own for the past few days, with the result that one Star has been sold and good prospects for the sale of at least a dozen more in the near future, according to his own figures.

Mr. Welliver states that it will be a question of being able to get cars in the Star line, rather than buyers for this model. He says that the value in this car cannot be appreciated until a person has had a ride in and driven the machine.

Free taxi service to and from the Ransford auto show was provided, and in spite of the severe weather conditions a larger crowd attended and showed their interest in the line of cars handled than had been anticipated.

Friday night is "Studebaker Night", and all owners and prospective owners of Studebaker cars are invited to attend and inspect the new line just received of this popular make, including the light six, the special six, and the big six. Many improvements and accessories have been added to this line of automobiles.

The Durant car is a new one in this locality. It is built in both four and six cylinder models by W. C. Durant, a pioneer in this business, and maker of the Star. Mr. Durant was the designer of the Cadillac and Buick automobiles for a number of years.

The Ransford garage will specialize in the Durant 4-cylinder type, a very handsome car with barrel style head lamps and parking lamps, and disc wheels. The six cylinder model will be sold by special order only. Mr. Welliver started the Ransford garage early in the fall, and is well pleased with the reception his lines have had, and the prospects for a record business this coming season.

Ungallant Swain.

He was twelve, I was eleven. He asked me to go to a dance. I consented. The dance was about one mile away, so we had to take the car. When we got there he was struck on another girl. When it was time to go home, he told me he was going to take this other girl home. I was left to find my way home alone.—Chicago Journal.

Heat Injurious to Books.

It is undeniably true that the dry heat which we use in our American homes is ruinous to furniture, books and pictures. This, of course, can be avoided by forcing damp air into the room or by using pans of water concealed on the radiator. But no matter how dampened, a direct draft of heat will play havoc with furnishings and the house builder should avoid it.

Always Fitting Time.

For truth and duty it is the fitting time; who waits until circumstances completely favor his undertaking, will never accomplish anything.—Luther

Physician Surprised

Hearing of some good results from the use of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy I decided to try it on a chronic case of indigestion and gastritis I was interested in. After the first dose the patient was relieved of gas trouble and was soon able to eat radishes and many things he had not eaten in years. It removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded at Johnson's Pharmacy and all leading druggists.

WASHINGTONS NATAL DAY AT THE SCHOOLS

Patriotic Exercises to Be Held Feb. 22 Commemorating Washington and Lincoln

PUBLIC IS INVITED TO JOIN
No Regular School Session Following the Exercises, Rest of Day Taken as a Holiday

On Thursday next, February 22nd, Washington's birthday, all the schools of the city will meet in their respective buildings at nine o'clock and hold short patriotic exercises commemorative of Washington and Lincoln. There will be no regular school session following the exercises and the rest of the day will be taken as a holiday.

The public generally is invited to join with the schools in these patriotic exercises and a special invitation is extended to the G. A. R., W. R. C. and Circle Ladies, the American Legion, and the United War Veterans.

At the high school assembly room, Rev. Walenta, of the Episcopal church, will deliver the patriotic address to the high school and it is hoped that Miss Lucile O'Connor will give the declamation, "The Perfect Tribute" (To Lincoln), which she gave at the local contest last week but which only a few people had the opportunity of hearing.

Combination Entertainment
Shortly after the Easter vacation,

a combination entertainment will be given in the opera house under the direction of Miss Opsahl and Mr. White of the high school. The musical part of this program will be given by grade students under Miss Opsahl's direction and the high school features will be directed by Mr. White. The proceeds from this entertainment will be devoted to the purchase of equipment and supplies for the musical department of the Brainerd schools, possibly toward the grand piano fund for the new high school fund building, started by Miss Opsahl last year.

Some time since, earlier in the year, Anthone Anderson of S. E. Brainerd donated a number of very excellent pictures to the Harrison school. Recently Mr. Anderson has very generously added another group of excellent pictures to his donation. The schools are glad to acknowledge thanks and their appreciation for this act of public spirit and generosity.

WEALTH OF FINE PICTURES

Lyceum Earns the Title of Being "The Home of Paramount Pictures"

The Lyceum theatre has earned the title of being "The Home of Paramount Pictures." It continues its policy of running seven days a week and daily matinees. One of the largest and most costly programs has been contracted for.

Only a few of the biggest and most expensive will be shown at the Lyceum at advance prices. Most all of them will be shown at the regular admission price. Fifty have been selected from the entire output of Paramount. Several big United Artists and Goldwyn productions have been secured for an early showing. Marshall Neilan's "Stranger Banquet" will be shown soon.

Following are some of the bookings from the above companies: Dorothy Dalton in "The Crimson Challenge"; Richard Barthelmess in "Experience"; Cecil B. DeMille's "Saturday Night"; Will Rogers and Lila Lee in "One Glorious Day"; Betty Compson in "Green Temptation"; "The Affairs of Anatol," "Fool's Paradise"; Agnes Ayres and Jack Holt in "Bought and Paid For"; Wallace Reid and Elsie Ferguson in "Forever" based on the novel "Peter Ibbetson"; Lionel Barrymore in "Boomerang Bill"; Thomas Meighan in "The Leading Citizen"; Three Pola Negri productions, also Rudolph Valentino, Gloria Swanson, Nazimova and numerous other stars are already contracted for.

Most all of these could be classed as specials, but with the exception of a few, most all will be shown at the Lyceum at regular admission prices. The management believes in giving the public a big special bargain occasionally, such as D. W. Griffith's "Orphans of the Storm." Other lines of business have their bargain days, why not the theatre.

Every evening and Sunday matinee during the run of the above picture was packed and many had to be turned away. The Lyceum should be congratulated on the consistently high grade of pictures it has presented during its two years of operation and its success has proven that the theatre going public endorses its policy.

APPOINTED GRAND GUIDE

Rev. Charles Fox Davis, Formerly of Brainerd, Assumes Office in State A. O. U. W.

The A. O. U. W. Guide, the monthly publication of the Workman lodge of Minnesota, has this paragraph written by Grand Master E. F. Carlston:

"There being a vacancy in the office of Grand Guide, I am pleased to announce that in conformity with the provisions of our laws, I have appointed to the position of Grand Guide of the Grand Lodge, Rev. Charles Fox Davis of Crystal Lodge No. 74.

This brother is so well and favorably known to most of our members that I am fully convinced that his appointment will meet with enthusiastic and practically unanimous approval.

The Order is indeed fortunate in having timber of that class from which to choose, and I am very happy to make the announcement that Brother Davis has accepted the appointment. There are two or three other vacancies which will receive attention later.

A Quarter Century of Service

"If a man write a better book or preach a better sermon or build a better mouse-trap Tho he live in the depths of the forest The world will beat a path to his door."
—EMERSON.

25 years ago a small druggist—in a small town—discovered a new way—an "external" way—to treat colds. So Vicks was born.

And for a quarter of a century, in ever increasing numbers, the world has beaten a path to its door.

Until today more than 17 million jars go out yearly to serve the people of this land.

Avoid Influenza—Grip—Pneumonia

How to Apply Vicks to Help Avoid These Infections
How to Use Vicks in Case You Are Attacked

DEEP, grippy colds—frequently leading into pneumonia—have been unusually prevalent this winter. Some authorities insist that they are a form of influenza, not so virulent as the influenza during the first epidemic, though they are worse than ordinary colds.

Vicks As A Preventative.

Most medical authorities now agree that these troubles are germ diseases—commonly spread by breathing in the germs. If the system is in good shape—the membrane of the air passages in a healthy condition—these germs do not ordinarily breed.

Keep a little Vicks rubbed up the nostrils at all times, particularly when exposed to crowds. At night melt Vicks in a spoon and inhale the vapors, or better still, use Vicks in a teakettle as directed below. This treatment helps to keep the air passages in good condition.

The Danger Is From Pneumonia.

The chief danger lies in the development of pneumonia. What is needed therefore is something to decrease the congestion of the lungs. For this purpose there is nothing like a rubefacient or counter-irritant, as witness the use of blisters, poultices and plasters for many generations. This irritation reddens the skin—draws the blood from the congested parts to the surface; the circulation is improved; there is a sensation of warmth and the possibility of pneumonia is greatly lessened.

A "Quick" Rubefacient Needed.

The value of this counter-irritant effect is greatly increased if it is produced quickly. Nearly every family has its favorite method—onion poultices, turpentine stupes, mustard plasters and poultices of various kinds—all are good.

A very simple method is to apply towels wrung out in hot water, as hot as the patient can stand. This not only reddens the skin quickly, but also opens the pores so that more Vicks can be absorbed. Some, however, prefer to use an ordinary mustard plaster, as the reddening effect lasts longer.

Get Skin Thoroughly Red.

Whatever method is used, the application should be applied over the throat and chest until the skin is thoroughly reddened. In very deep colds, the sides and especially the back from the middle of the shoulder blades to a point just above the waist, should also be treated.

The patient should be given a good purgative and, if convenient, a hot mustard footbath for ten minutes—one tablespoon of mustard to a gallon of water.

Then Massage With Vicks.

After the skin is thoroughly reddened, it should be dried lightly and immediately the patient should be given a brisk massage with Vicks all over the parts. Continue this for five minutes. This increases the counter-irritant effect. Then apply Vicks thickly over all the parts; that is, spread it on as you would a poultice—about one-sixteenth of an inch thick or more—and cover with two thicknesses of hot flannel cloths.

Vicks' Double Action

Thus applied Vicks has a double action. First, Vicks is so made that the body heat gradually releases the ingredients in the form of vapors. The more Vicks applied, the stronger will be the vapors and the longer these vapors will last. The night clothing should always be loose around the neck and the bed clothes arranged in the form of a funnel. These vapors being lighter than air, rise up from the chest and, if the bed clothing is properly arranged, pass by the nose and mouth and are thus inhaled with each breath, carrying the medication directly thru the air passages to the lungs.

The second action of Vicks is external—by absorption thru and stimulation of the skin.

Repeat Treatment.

When the vapors begin to lose their strength, fresh Vicks should be applied over the throat and chest. This to keep up the continuous supply of vapors. When the redness of the skin dies out, all the Vicks remaining should be wiped off and the entire treatment repeated. That is, the hot wet towels or mustard plasters should be used until the skin is again thoroughly reddened, then massage with Vicks, spread on thickly and cover with hot flannels, just as previously done.

Steam and Vapor Method.

Sometimes when the patient is badly choked up, the vapors from the application on the chest are not sufficient to make the breathing easier. In these cases drop a tablespoonful of Vicks into a kettle of boiling water and allow the patient to inhale the warm steam and vapors combined, for about 10 minutes. Do this several times a day if needed. Keep the water boiling and put in additional Vicks whenever the vapors decrease. Put a sheet over the patient and the tea-kettle, making a kind of a tent.

Take no chances with these grippy colds. Remember, Vicks must be used freely to be effective—and always call a doctor.

WASHINGTONS NATAL DAY AT THE SCHOOLS

Patriotic Exercises to Be Held Feb. 22 Commemorating Washington and Lincoln

PUBLIC IS INVITED TO JOIN
No Regular School Session Following the Exercises, Rest of Day Taken as a Holiday

On Thursday next, February 22th, Washington's birthday, all the schools of the city will meet in their respective buildings at nine o'clock and hold short patriotic exercises commemorative of Washington and Lincoln. There will be no regular school session following the exercises and the rest of the day will be taken as a holiday.

The public generally is invited to join with the schools in these patriotic exercises and a special invitation is extended to the G. A. R., W. R. C. and Circle Ladies, the American Legion, and the United War Veterans.

At the high school assembly room, Rev. Walenta, of the Episcopal church, will deliver the patriotic address to the high school and it is hoped that Miss Lucile O'Connor will give the declamation, "The Perfect Tribute" (To Lincoln), which she gave at the local contest last week but which only a few people had the opportunity of hearing.

Combination Entertainment
Shortly after the Easter vacation,

a combination entertainment will be given in the opera house under the direction of Miss Opsahl and Mr. White of the high school. The musical part of this program will be given by grade students under Miss Opsahl's direction and the high school features will be directed by Mr. White. The proceeds from this entertainment will be devoted to the purchase of equipment and supplies for the musical department of the Brainerd schools, possibly toward the grand piano fund for the new high school fund building, started by Miss Opsahl last year.

Some time since, earlier in the year, Anthone Anderson of S. E. Brainerd donated a number of very excellent pictures to the Harrison school. Recently Mr. Anderson has very generously added another group of excellent pictures to his donation. The schools are glad to acknowledge thanks and their appreciation for this act of public spirit and generosity.

WEALTH OF FINE PICTURES

Lyceum Earns the Title of Being "The Home of Paramount Pictures"

The Lyceum theatre has earned the title of being "The Home of Paramount Pictures." It continues its policy of running seven days a week and daily matinees. One of the largest and most costly programs has been contracted for.

Only a few of the biggest and most expensive will be shown at the Lyceum at advance prices. Most all of them will be shown at the regular admission price. Fifty have been selected from the entire output of Paramount. Several big United Artists and Goldwyn productions have been secured for an early showing. Marshall Neilan's "Stranger's Banquet" will be shown soon.

Following are some of the bookings from the above companies: Dorothy Dalton in "The Crimson Challenge"; Richard Barthelmess in "Experience"; Cecil B. DeMille's "Saturday Night"; Will Rogers and Lila Lee in "One Glorious Day"; Betty Compson in "Green Temptation"; "The Affairs of Anatol"; "Fool's Paradise"; Agnes Ayres and Jack Holt in "Bought and Paid For"; Wallace Reid and Elsie Ferguson in "Forever" based on the novel "Peter Ibbetson"; Lionel Barrymore in "Boomerang Bill"; Thomas Meighan in "The Leading Citizen"; Three Pola Negri productions, also Rudolph Valentino, Gloria Swanson, Nazimova and numerous other stars are already contracted for.

Most all of these could be classed as specials, but with the exception of a few, most all will be shown at the Lyceum at regular admission prices. The management believes in giving the public a big special bargain occasionally, such as D. W. Griffith's "Orphans of the Storm." Other lines of business have their bargain days, why not the theatre.

Every evening and Sunday matinee during the run of the above picture was packed and many had to be turned away. The Lyceum should be congratulated on the consistently high grade of pictures it has presented during its two years of operation and its success has proven that the theatre going public endorses its policy.

PRESIDENT HARDING FAVORS CONSOLIDATION

THE exigencies of the World war led to the consolidation of forces under a central command. So long as the different armies were acting independently Germany was free to initiate separate attacks throwing her strength to points where advantage might be gained. In this way she wore down the French, the Italians or the British in turn. Acting independently these armies were without a unified program by which they might be moved at the command of one supreme authority.

One other weakness in organization was found in the lack of unity existing between various departments and it was not until the various branches of the armies of the nations were co-ordinated that the best results were obtained. The movement of American troops over the Atlantic was closely related to the manner in which troops should be used in the trenches. So long as there was any misunderstanding between the departments of the army and navy neither could discharge its functions in such a way as to yield the highest possible service in a time of stress.

President Harding's endorsement of the proposal by which the departments and bureaus of the army and navy will be consolidated, forming "The Department of Defense," is a step in the right direction. The name used clearly indicates the service that this department would render the nation. The Department of Defense would necessarily include both branches of the service. Not only the navy but the army also has its duties in defending our territories, and because they are both a part of the system of defense it is highly desirable that they be brought under one portfolio.

Other proposals that are receiving the consideration of the administration are likely to improve the departmental work of the federal government. Certain new departments are proposed, one of these having as its interest education and public welfare. To bring such work under a department would help out considerably.

The work that the present administration was required to undertake, to bring about such adjustments as were necessary if efficiency was to be introduced into government was appalling, but developments are proving that the Harding administration is redeeming its pledge to attempt to bring order out of chaos. Men like Herbert Hoover are making a quiet contribution to the work of the government in the departments they serve.

AFTER THE FIRE

For a while on Sunday afternoon, when the fire was at its height, spectators feared that all the buildings on the east side of Seventh street and the block on Front street between Seventh and Broadway would be wiped out. It was a real fire, one of the kind that raises the question, "Where will it stop?" This fire provided a good deal of excitement, it taxed the energy and resourcefulness of the fire department, it brought grave concern to those whose property stood near, and it afforded a subject for conversation until the blizzard took off its edge by itself demanding a place in the discussions of the people of the city.

Fires are always more easily put out two or three days after they have ceased to burn, deficiencies of equipment are most prominently before the minds of the people just after a real fire has threatened to destroy a great amount of good property in the city's center, and there is always a disposition to correct any lack by supplying the equipment needed, after the fire.

The history of modern cities shows that the day after the fire is so many days before the next one, and any thoughts that lead to a scanty consideration of the needs of the fire department, because the fire was yesterday, ought to be brushed aside as people consider the certainty that at some future date the capacity of the fire department will be taxed again by another fire.

If there is anything that a modern city needs more than almost anything else it is efficient equipment for fire fighting. Nothing that can be purchased is guaranteed to save more money in the end than such equipment. When a city's fire fighting apparatus is brought up to standard the rates are reduced and the people of the city, and the city itself, saves money. To this saving must be added what is lost through inability to prevent the spread of a fire because of inadequate equipment.

Brainerd's citizens give full credit to the fire department for their splendid services on Sunday afternoon and, remembering that their efforts were not what they would have been with more adequate equipment, they will support any reasonable move made by the city council to bring the city's fire fighting apparatus up to the standard that will be equal to any emergency.

DE VALERA RENEWS OLD DEMANDS

THE consensus of opinion has supported the government of the Irish Free State from the time when it took over the control of Ireland. Much as friends of Ireland have regretted the stern methods that have been adopted by the leaders of the government, leading to many executions, they have concluded that the government has agreed that stern methods alone will lead to established government. Perhaps those methods may be entirely wrong but they are employed by Irishmen who, having taken control, have concluded that they are necessary. Because the government as now constituted came into being through agreements negotiated by Irish leaders in conference with English officials, and is duly constituted, the swing of sentiment has been towards this constituted authority. Inasmuch as this government exists by the will of the majority of the Irish people those who favor majority rule support the present government.

De Valera is intent upon securing complete independence, which in the disordered state of the world today, would not be conceded by Britain. Any suggestion of the British government yielding to such demands at this time is not likely to be taken seriously. While this Irish leader deserves credit for his leadership that helped forward Ireland's cause, his impossible position during the months following the establishment of the Free State has not helped the situation. Enthusiasts are unwilling to accept any compromises; they insist on their will even when it expresses minority sentiment and refuse to bow to the will of the majority. After Ireland has become orderly, has gained a place as a self-governing people within the British Empire, and the deep feelings engendered by relationships that have been anything but generous on the part of the English government has had time to calm, Ireland may win such independence as her people desire; or her population may become satisfied with the Free State when its constitution has been given a chance.

It is possible, however, that by agreement with the government a plebiscite may be secured which will lead to a better understanding and, unless information is far from the facts, the Irish people will endorse the Free State. Such a decision, if the republicans are true to their word, would result in a cessation of hostilities between the two factions in Ireland.

BRainerd's crack bowling team entered the state tournament to find that in the Cities there are alleys and alleys and alleys and yet more alleys. And, 'tis said, every alley has a movement of its own.

MANY of Brainerd's business men were held in the Twin Cities by the storm, and even their wives were unable to lecture them because for once their alibi could not be ruled out.

ONE visitor stalled in Minneapolis complained that his friends persisted in calling the railroad information bureau from his hotel room. And when he paid his bill he complained some more.

"LURE OF THE NORTH"

Title of Lecture to Be Given by L. O. Armstrong at Methodist Church Monday Evening

"The Lure of the North" is the subject of a lecture to be given by L. O. Armstrong, naturalist and explorer, at the Methodist church on Monday evening, under the auspices of the Men's club of that denomination.

Mr. Armstrong is sent out in this work by the Bureau of Commercial Economics, of Washington, D. C., which is an educational institution, having for its purpose the supplying of educational lectures and pictures in all parts of the country, without cost to the recipients.

There is absolutely no cost to those hearing Mr. Armstrong's lecture, all that is required is that they have a ticket. This is demanded so that the capacity of the church will not be taxed.

This lecturer has had an interesting life. For forty years he has lived in the wilds, with the Indians and frontiersmen. A college graduate, he has always been a reader and close observer, and knows how to popularize his subject and to adapt it to any audience.

Mr. Armstrong was selected by the Canadian government to put on the Indian Pageant of the Tercentenary of the foundation of the city of Quebec and was chosen by the United States government, and the state governments of New York and Vermont to take entire charge of the pageant celebrating the discovery of Lake Champlain.

He has now gone into the moving pictures, giving each summer's exploration and adventures in his lectures during the subsequent winter. There are many who have no hesitation in saying that Mr. Armstrong is the best of the present-day lecturers who use motion pictures and slides.

"The Lure of the North" comes very highly recommended by Rotary clubs, commercial clubs, colleges and churches under whose auspices it has been given, and it is sure to prove very popular when heard in this city. George E. Lowe is at the head of the committee in charge of the event.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Farrar, Mrs. J. M. Elder and Mrs. W. A. Flemming left Friday afternoon for an extended rail and ocean trip, where they hope to get away from the storms of the past week and enjoy the warmer weather of the tropics.

The party will go directly to New York city, where they will be joined Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Strachan, of Duluth, former Brainerd residents, and sail Tuesday on the S. S. "Empress of Britain" on what is known as the West Indies Tours.

The first stop will be at Havana, Cuba on February 23rd, and from Havana the itinerary is as follows: Port Antonio and Kingston, Jamaica; Colon in the Panama Canal Zone; La Guayra in Venezuela; Port of Spain and La Brea, Trinidad; Bridgetown in the Barbadoes; Fort de France and St. Pierre on the island of Martinique; San Juan, Porto Rico; Hamilton in Bermuda, and thence to New York city, where they are due to arrive on March 19th.

Practically a month will be consumed on the trip, and the party will return to Brainerd directly from New York, without stopping enroute.

FORBES QUILTS AS HEAD OF VETERANS BUREAU

Washington, Feb. 16.—Colonel C. R. Forbes, director of the Veterans bureau, placed his resignation in President Harding's hands before he left for Europe two weeks ago, Senator James Watson of Indiana said yesterday. President Harding has in mind as possible successor to Forbes "three men who served in the trenches", one of whom he will eventually designate, Watson said.

Sorry She Spoke.

While going to visit my girl friend's home, to which I had never been, I had a strange experience. She came to the car to meet me and the first house we came to I said: "For heaven's sake, who lives in this little barn?" She led me into the house. It was her home.—Exchange.

There are so many ways to serve Kellogg's Bran—the one great aid to humanity!

You will enjoy eating Kellogg's Bran because its nut-like flavor appeals to the taste. And, think what each mouthful is doing to drive constipation out of your system and to re-establish health! That's because it is ALL BRAN. Kellogg's Bran is scientifically made to relieve suffering humanity—IT WILL DO THAT AS NO OTHER FOOD CAN!

Physicians recommend the regular use of Kellogg's Bran for mild or chronic cases and as a preventive. Bran, eaten each day and in proper quantity, sweeps, cleanses and purifies the alimentary tract.

Get away from pills and cathartics—Kellogg's Bran will give you permanent relief from constipation.

Do not confuse Kellogg's Bran with common bran. Kellogg's is cooked, crumbled and ready to serve. It can be used in the most delightful baking products without in any way reducing its regulatory value. Try raisin bread or muffins or griddle-cakes made with Kellogg's Bran. Recipes are printed on each package.

Kellogg's Bran is nationally eaten for health's sake as a cereal—in winter time with hot milk. Others prefer it sprinkled over hot or cold cereals. Another way is to mix it with hot cereals just before serving. It can also be cooked with cereal. In each case add two tablespoonfuls of Kellogg's Bran for each person; in chronic cases as much with each meal.

Kellogg's Bran is sold by all grocers and is supplied in individual packages at first-class hotels and clubs. Ask for it at your restaurant!

PRESIDENT HARDING FAVORS CONSOLIDATION

THE exigencies of the World war led to the consolidation of forces under a central command. So long as the different armies were acting independently Germany was free to initiate separate attacks throwing her strength to points where advantage might be gained. In this way she wore down the French, the Italians or the British in turn. Acting independently these armies were without a unified program by which they might be moved at the command of one supreme authority.

One other weakness in organization was found in the lack of unity existing between various departments and it was not until the various branches of the armies of the nations were co-ordinated that the best results were obtained. The movement of American troops over the Atlantic was closely related to the manner in which troops should be used in the trenches. So long as there was any misunderstanding between the departments of the army and navy neither could discharge its functions in such a way as to yield the highest possible service in a time of stress.

President Harding's endorsement of the proposal by which the departments and bureaus of the army and navy will be consolidated, forming "The Department of Defense," is a step in the right direction. The name used clearly indicates the service that this department would render the nation. The Department of Defense would necessarily include both branches of the service. Not only the navy but the army also has its duties in defending our territories, and because they are both a part of the system of defense it is highly desirable that they be brought under one portfolio.

Other proposals that are receiving the consideration of the administration are likely to improve the departmental work of the federal government. Certain new departments are proposed, one of these having as its interest education and public welfare. To bring such work under a department would help out considerably.

The work that the present administration was required to undertake, to bring about such adjustments as were necessary if efficiency was to be introduced into government was appalling, but developments are proving that the Harding administration is redeeming its pledge to attempt to bring order out of chaos. Men like Herbert Hoover are making a quiet contribution to the work of the government in the departments they serve.

AFTER THE FIRE

FOR a while on Sunday afternoon, when the fire was at its height, spectators feared that all the buildings on the east side of Seventh street and the block on Front street between Seventh and Broadway would be wiped out. It was a real fire, one of the kind that raises the question, "Where will it stop?" This fire provided a good deal of excitement, it taxed the energy and resourcefulness of the fire department, it brought grave concern to those whose property stood near, and it afforded a subject for conversation until the blizzard took off its edge by itself demanding a place in the discussions of the people of the city.

Fires are always more easily put out two or three days after they have ceased to burn, deficiencies of equipment are most prominently before the minds of the people just after a real fire has threatened to destroy a great amount of good property in the city's center, and there is always a disposition to correct any lack by supplying the equipment needed, after the fire.

The history of modern cities shows that the day after the fire is so many days before the next one, and any thoughts that lead to a scanty consideration of the needs of the fire department, because the fire was yesterday, ought to be brushed aside as people consider the certainty that at some future date the capacity of the fire department will be taxed again by another fire.

If there is anything that a modern city needs more than almost anything else it is efficient equipment for fire fighting. Nothing that can be purchased is guaranteed to save more money in the end than such equipment. When a city's fire fighting apparatus is brought up to standard the rates are reduced and the people of the city, and the city itself, saves money. To this saving must be added what is lost through inability to prevent the spread of a fire because of inadequate equipment.

Brainerd's citizens give full credit to the fire department for their splendid services on Sunday afternoon and, remembering that their efforts were not what they would have been with more adequate equipment, they will support any reasonable move made by the city council to bring the city's fire fighting apparatus up to the standard that will be equal to any emergency.

DE VALERA RENEWS OLD DEMANDS

THE consensus of opinion has supported the government of the Irish Free State from the time when it took over the control of Ireland. Much as friends of Ireland have regretted the stern methods that have been adopted by the leaders of the government, leading to many executions, they have concluded that the government has agreed that stern methods alone will lead to established government. Perhaps those methods may be entirely wrong but they are employed by Irishmen who, having taken control, have concluded that they are necessary. Because the government as now constituted came into being through agreements negotiated by Irish leaders in conference with English officials, and is duly constituted, the swing of sentiment has been towards this constituted authority. Inasmuch as this government exists by the will of the majority of the Irish people those who favor majority rule support the present government.

De Valera is intent upon securing complete independence, which in the disordered state of the world today, would not be conceded by Britain. Any suggestion of the British government yielding to such demands at this time is not likely to be taken seriously. While this Irish leader deserves credit for his leadership that helped forward Ireland's cause, his impossible position during the months following the establishment of the Free State has not helped the situation. Enthusiasts are unwilling to accept any compromises; they insist on their will even when it expresses minority sentiment and refuse to bow to the will of the majority. After Ireland has become orderly, has gained a place as a self-governing people within the British Empire, and the deep feelings engendered by relationships that have been anything but generous on the part of the English government has had time to calm, Ireland may win such independence as her people desire; or her population may become satisfied with the Free State when its constitution has been given a chance.

It is possible, however, that by agreement with the government a plebiscite may be secured which will lead to a better understanding and, unless information is far from the facts, the Irish people will endorse the Free State. Such a decision, if the republicans are true to their word, would result in a cessation of hostilities between the two factions in Ireland.

BRAINERD'S crack bowling team entered the state tournament to find that in the Cities there are alleys and alleys and alleys and yet more alleys. And, 'tis said, every alley has a movement of its own.

MANY of Brainerd's business men were held in the Twin Cities by the storm, and even their wives were unable to lecture them because for once their alibi could not be ruled out.

ONE visitor stalled in Minneapolis complained that his friends persisted in calling the railroad information bureau from his hotel room. And when he paid his bill he complained some more.

"LURE OF THE NORTH"

Title of Lecture to Be Given by L. O. Armstrong at Methodist Church Monday Evening

"The Lure of the North" is the subject of a lecture to be given by L. O. Armstrong, naturalist and explorer, at the Methodist church on Monday evening, under the auspices of the Men's club of that denomination.

Mr. Armstrong is sent out in this work by the Bureau of Commercial Economics, of Washington, D. C., which is an educational institution, having for its purpose the supplying of educational lectures and pictures in all parts of the country, without cost to the recipients.

There is absolutely no cost to those hearing Mr. Armstrong's lecture, all that is required is that they have a ticket. This is demanded so that the capacity of the church will not be taxed.

This lecturer has had an interesting life. For forty years he has lived in the wilds, with the Indians and frontiersmen. A college graduate, he has always been a reader and close observer, and knows how to popularize his subject and to adapt it to any audience.

Mr. Armstrong was selected by the Canadian government to put on the Indian Pageant of the Tercentenary of the foundation of the city of Quebec and was chosen by the United States government, and the state governments of New York and Vermont to take entire charge of the pageant celebrating the discovery of Lake Champlain.

He has now gone into the moving pictures, giving each summer's exploration and adventures in his lectures during the subsequent winter. There are many who have no hesitation in saying that Mr. Armstrong is the best of the present-day lecturers who use motion pictures and slides.

"The Lure of the North" comes very highly recommended by Rotary clubs, commercial clubs, colleges and churches under whose auspices it has been given, and it is sure to prove very popular when heard in this city. George E. Lowe is at the head of the committee in charge of the event.

ON OCEAN TRIP

Brainerd Party to Go to New York and Then Sail on West Indies' Tour

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Farrar, Mrs. J. M. Elder and Mrs. W. A. Flemming left Friday afternoon for an extended rail and ocean trip, where they hope to get away from the storms of the past week and enjoy the warmer weather of the tropics.

The party will go directly to New York city, where they will be joined Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Strachan, of Duluth, former Brainerd residents, and sail Tuesday on the S. S. "Empress of Britain" or what is known as the West Indies Tours.

The first stop will be at Havana, Cuba on February 23rd, and from Havana the itinerary is as follows:

Port Antonio and Kingston, Jamaica; Colon in the Panama Canal Zone, La Guayra in Venezuela; Port of Spain and La Brea, Trinidad; Bridge-town in the Barbadoes; Fort de France and St. Pierre on the island of Martinique; San Juan, Porto Rico; Hamilton in Bermuda, and thence to New York city, where they are due to arrive on March 19th.

Practically a month will be consumed on the trip, and the party will return to Brainerd directly from New York, without stopping enroute.

AFTERMATH OF HISTORIC STORM

Final Chapter Written When Many Local People, Marooned Outside, Get Back to Town

MAIL PILED UP ENROUTE

All Trains of N. P. Back on Schedule Except Morris and Fergus Falls Branches

The final chapter of the recent storm, so far as Brainerd is concerned, was written about 4:15 Thursday afternoon, when the first passenger train in two days brought many residents of the city home from St. Paul and Minneapolis where they had been snowbound since Tuesday. The train left the twin cities about ten o'clock Thursday morning, but lost time at every station, due to the enormous amount of mail which it was carrying, and the many passengers that were accommodated.

The list of Brainerdites who finally got home after many false starts, disappointments and delays, included Mr. and Mrs. Mons Mahlum, Cor. O'Brien, A. G. Trommald, A. J. Hayes, John M. Bye, Hilding Swanson, Rev. Frederick Errington, John F. Woodhead, R. E. Warrick, Mrs. Fred Moerke, Mrs. Bertha Davis, Mrs. P. B. Harrison and Mrs. Charles Hukari, William Demmer and Frank Zwack.

This train proceeded up the M. & N. without incident, barring the fact that it was several hours late. All trains on that road are now back on regular schedule.

The dispatcher's office reports that all trains on the Northern Pacific are back on their regular runs, with the exception of those on the Morris branch and the Fergus Falls-Oakes lines. Snowplows are still working on these two roads with little prospects of any train service before Saturday.

The engine pulling the time freight from Brainerd to Minneapolis, better known in the city as the "Hot Shot," broke the drive shaft plunger near the Oak street crossing Thursday evening, which resulted in both drive shafts breaking and demolishing many of the accessories on the engine. Several hours were consumed in clearing away the wreckage.

High School Prepares Program to be Given When Supt. C. H. Barnes Speaks in City

The High school orchestra will play several numbers, and the Glee club and Mrs. Ray Hall will repeat the "One Fine Day" solo and chorus from Madame Butterfly that they sang at the class play, on next Tuesday evening when C. H. Barnes of Duluth speaks in Brainerd at the Civic and Commerce Association.

As Mr. Barnes was superintendent of the Virginia City schools where Miss Marion Opsahl did her first work in public school music supervision, it will be most appropriate to have her students furnish the music for this occasion.

With fine school music and Mr. Barnes' description of what it is possible to accomplish in rural schools that are not handicapped for lack of funds, the audience ought to be able to visualize an ideal school system. The bill now before the legislature will not produce that, but it is a step in the right direction, and it is hoped that Mr. Barnes will be very convincing on this point. There will be no charge for this entertainment.

ROY PATTERSON "UMPS"

Former Pitcher of Brainerd, Central Minnesota League Days, Arbitrator in Western League

Roy Patterson, "boy wonder" of the major leagues and later a member of the Minneapolis pitching staff during the seasons of 1912, 1913 and 1914, and of Brainerd in the Central Minnesota League days when Stillwater was played at Lexington Park in St. Paul is now an umpire. He was signed by President Kearney of the Western league to finger the indicator during the 1923 season.

After leaving the Millers, Patterson went to the Dakota league, where he has been intermittently ever since. He has always been known as a "smart" pitcher, who won many games with his head and control after his arm had lost its pristine power.

In 1921, Patterson served as coach for Minneapolis pitchers at the spring training camp. Even last year he hurled a few games in the Dakota league and won his share.

Patterson was always popular with the fans and was always a conscientious and unusually clever pitcher.

MRS. JOHN HANOMAN DIED

Passed Away at Home of Her Daughter, Mrs. A. K. Gumaer, Friday Morning

Mrs. John Hanoman died at 7:15 Friday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. K. Gumaer, 323 2nd Ave., N. E. Anna Wilmes was born in Westphalia, Germany, September 25th, 1849, and grew to womanhood there. In 1871 she was united in marriage to John Hanoman, and moved to America in April, 1883, coming directly to Brainerd where they have since resided.

Beside the husband, she leaves seven children, being Mrs. John Fench of St. Paul, Mrs. H. J. Herman and Mrs. A. K. Gumaer of Brainerd, Mrs. C. T. Crowl of Scranton, N. D., Joseph and John of St. Paul and Frank of Ellensburg, Wash. Two sons are deceased, Edward and Albert.

Funeral arrangements have not been completed, but will be announced later.

LADIES NIGHT AT TALL CEDARS

Committee Has Provided Program of Dancing, Games and Refreshments

ALL BRAINERD FOREST THERE

Function, First of 1923 Season, Takes Place Friday Evening in Masonic Hall

Extensive plans are being made in the local forests of Lebanon for the coming Ladies' night festivities scheduled for Friday evening.

The committee in charge have included in their program dancing, games and refreshments, and promise a big time for all Tall Cedars and their ladies. Dances of every description, old, middle-aged and new steps, will be given their full share of attention.

Invitations have been sent out to all members of the Brainerd forest, which includes all the territory surrounding this city, and it is expected that many will come from Staples, the Cuyuna Range and points on the Minnesota & International.

This is the first number on the 1923 program, the initial step made by the newly elected officers, and it is hoped that all will give it their active support by turning out to the festivities and adding their best efforts to make it the success it deserves to be.

This function takes place in the Masonic parlors at 8 o'clock on Friday evening, and will be preceded by a short business session which all members are asked to attend.

Many other jollifications are planned by this lodge throughout the year which means that there is much in store for those who wear the green pyramids, that only they can appreciate. The new officers state that there is much work awaiting them in the virgin forests surrounding Brainerd, and that the lodge can be relied upon to do this work and do it well. The Brainerd fraternity will be heard from often in the future.

Entertains Friends

Miss Mardelle Eschmann entertained a number of friends at her home in Northeast Brainerd Saturday evening, the time being spent informally.

GAIN PRAISE FROM MASTERS

Brainerd Elks Lodge Receives Commendations from Grand Exalted Ruler of Order

THE OFFICERS' NOMINATIONS

Candidates Being Enrolled for a Class Initiation in Near Future, Special Team Named

Brainerd Lodge No. 615 of the Elks prides itself on the letter of commendation received from Grand Exalted Ruler Masters, based on the recent inspection made by District Deputy I. K. Lewis of Duluth. The letter was read at Thursday's meeting and was greeted with applause.

Candidates are being gathered for a class initiation in the near future and sensing the need of a thorough initiation with nothing omitted a motion carried that a special committee of five be appointed to see that this is all carried out.

Thomas McGarry, well known Brainerd boy stationed in marine service at Washington, D. C., was given the obligation and in his talk following paid a high tribute to the Elks. By next class initiation four McGarry brothers will be members of the Elks.

Exalted Ruler J. J. Nolan, sick for some time at a local hospital, is regaining his health and has been removed to his home. It was reported.

These officers were nominated for the next term:

Exalted Ruler—John A. Hoffbauer. Esteemed Leading Knight—Dr. A. K. Cohen.

Esteemed Loyal Knight—Roland G. Jenkins.

Esteemed Lecturing Knight—Walter F. Kunitz.

Secretary—John J. Cummins.

Treasurer—B. L. Lagerquist.

Trustee—Fred Allison.

Tyler—C. D. Johnson.

Delegate to National Convention at Atlanta, Georgia—William V. Turcotte.

Alternate—C. D. Johnson.

Delegates to State Convention at Hibbing, (3 to be elected) Walter F. Kunitz, Fred Allison, Clyde E. Parker, V. C. Roderick and Roland G. Jenkins.

Alternates—E. J. Quinn, L. W. Smith and A. W. Fall.

The lodge voiced its sympathy for brother R. D. King, whose mother recently died in Duluth.

A. P. Drogseth reported on the Bush fans banquet given under Elks auspices and many expressions were made concerning its wonderful success and the fact that Joe Bullett, member of Philadelphia lodge No. 2, treasured it as one of the most wonderful tributes accorded him.

HAD A HEAVY PART

Tom Wood in Film Comedy "Holy Smoke" and Personal Appearance at New Park

Tom Wood took a "heavy part," both in the film comedy, "Holy Smoke," and in a personal appearance at the New Park theatre Thursday evening.

Tom took the part of a heavy-weight guest at the hotel, and caused much merriment by putting the elevator out of commission. He also sang and danced his way more firmly than ever into the hearts of his many Brainerd friends, who were more than generous with their applause. And Tom deserved every bit of it, too.

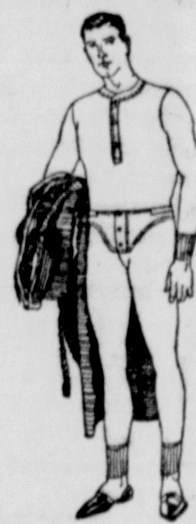

The comedian entertained his hearers first with numerous funny stories, and closed his bill with three of the late song hits, sung as only he is able to sing them. His dancing have made the Dolly sisters turn in connection with the songs would green with envy.

Exceptionally large houses greeted Brainerd's own movie star at both the seven and nine o'clock shows, packing the house to its capacity. Standing room was at a premium before eight o'clock.

"Hurricane's Gal" finished the well balanced program and created quite a sensation with its many thrills and numerous climaxes. The same bill, with Tow Wood better than ever, is to be repeated this evening.

Final Chapter Written When Many Local People, Marooned Outside, Get Back to Town

MAIL FILED UP ENROUTE

All Trains of N. P. Back on Schedule Except Morris and Fergus Falls Branches

The final chapter of the recent storm, so far as Brainerd is concerned, was written about 4:15 Thursday afternoon, when the first passenger train in two days brought many residents of the city home from St. Paul and Minneapolis where they had been snowbound since Tuesday.

The train left the twin cities about ten o'clock Thursday morning, but lost time at every station, due to the enormous amount of mail which it was carrying, and the many passengers that were accommodated.

The list of Brainerdites who finally got home after many false starts, disappointments and delays, included Mr. and Mrs. Mons Mahlum, Cor. O'Brien, A. G. Trommald, A. J. Hayes, John M. Bye, Hilding Swanson, Rev. Frederick Errington, John F. Woodhead, R. E. Warrick, Mrs. Fred Moerke, Mrs. Bertha Davis, Mrs. E. B. Harrison and Mrs. Charles Hukari. William Denmers and Frank Zwack.

This train proceeded up the M. & I. without incident, barring the fact that it was several hours late. All trains on that road are now back on regular schedule.

The dispatcher's office reports that all trains on the Northern Pacific are back on their regular runs, with the exception of those on the Morris branch and the Fergus Falls-Oakes lines. Snowplows are still working on these two roads with little prospects of any train service before Saturday.

The engine pulling the time freight from Brainerd to Minneapolis better known in the city as the "Hot-Shot," broke the drive shaft pinion near the Oak street crossing Thursday evening, which resulted in both drive shafts breaking and demolishing many of the accessories on the engine. Several hours were consumed in clearing away the wreckage.

High School Prepares Program to be Given When Supt. C. H. Barnes Speaks in City

The high school orchestra will play several numbers, and the Glee club and Mrs. Ray Hall will repeat the "One Fine Day" solo and chorus from Madame Butterfly that they sang at the class play, on next Tuesday evening when C. H. Barnes of Duluth speaks in Brainerd at the Civic and Commerce Association.

As Mr. Barnes was superintendent of the Virginia City schools where Miss Marion Opsahl did her first work in public school music supervision, it will be most appropriate to have her students furnish the music for this occasion.

With fine school music and Mr. Barnes' description of what it is possible to accomplish in rural schools that are not handicapped for lack of funds, the audience ought to be able to visualize an ideal school system. The bill now before the legislature will not produce that, but it is a step in the right direction, and it is hoped that Mr. Barnes will be very convincing on this point. There will be no charge for this entertainment.

ROY PATTERSON "UMPS"

Former Pitcher of Brainerd, Central Minnesota League Days, Arbitrator in Western League

Roy Patterson, "boy wonder" of the major leagues and later a member of the Minneapolis pitching staff during the seasons of 1912, 1913 and 1914, and of Brainerd in the Central Minnesota League days when Stillwater was played at Lexington Park in St. Paul is now an umpire. He was signed by President Kearney of the Western league to finger the indicator during the 1923 season.

After leaving the Millers, Patterson went to the Dakota league, where he has been intermittently ever since. He has always been known as a "smart" pitcher, who won many games with his head and control after his arm had lost its pristine power.

In 1921, Patterson served as coach for Minneapolis pitchers at the spring training camp. Even last year he hurled a few games in the Dakota league and won his share.

Patterson was always popular with the fans and was always a conscientious and unusually clever pitcher.

MRS. JOHN HANOMAN DIED

Passed Away at Home of Her Daughter, Mrs. A. K. Gumaer, Friday Morning

Mrs. John Hanoman died at 7:15 Friday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. K. Gumaer, 323 2nd Ave., N. E.

Anna Wilmes was born in Westphalia, Germany, September 25th, 1849, and grew to womanhood there. In 1871 she was united in marriage to John Hanoman, and moved to America in April, 1883, coming directly to Brainerd where they have since resided.

Beside the husband, she leaves seven children, being Mrs. John Fench of St. Paul, Mrs. H. J. Herman and Mrs. A. K. Gumaer of Brainerd, Mrs. C. T. Crowl of Scranton, N. D., Joseph and John of St. Paul and Frank of Ellensburg, Wash. Two sons are deceased, Edward and Albert.

Funeral arrangements have not been completed, but will be announced later.

LADIES NIGHT AT TALL CEDARS

Committee Has Provided Program of Dancing, Games and Refreshments

ALL BRAINERD FOREST THERE Function, First of 1923 Season, Takes Place Friday Evening in Masonic Hall

Extensive plans are being made in the local forests of Lebanon for the coming Ladies' night festivities scheduled for Friday evening.

The committee in charge have included in their program dancing, games and refreshments, and promise a big time for all Tall Cedars and their ladies. Dances of every description, old, middle-aged and new steps, will be given their full share of attention.

Invitations have been sent out to all members of the Brainerd forest, which includes all the territory surrounding this city, and it is expected that many will come from Staples, the Cuyuna Range and points on the Minnesota & International.

This is the first number on the 1923 program, the initial step made by the newly elected officers, and it is hoped that all will give it their active support by turning out to the festivities and adding their best efforts to make it the success it deserves to be.

This function takes place in the Masonic parlors at 8 o'clock on Friday evening, and will be preceded by a short business session which all members are asked to attend.

Many other jollifications are planned by this lodge throughout the year which means that there is much in store for those who wear the green pyramids, that only they can appreciate. The new officers state that there is much work awaiting them in the virgin forests surrounding Brainerd, and that the lodge can be relied upon to do this work and do it well. The Brainerd fraternity will be heard from often in the future.

Entertains Friends

Miss Mardelle Eschmann entertained a number of friends at her home in Northeast Brainerd Saturday evening, the time being spent informally.

Those present included Frances Sears, Maysie Carmichael, Marie Sears, Evelyn Thompson, William Carlson, Walter Engbretson, Otto Heikinen and William Zakariassen. At the close of the evening a very delicious luncheon was served.

GAIN PRAISE FROM MASTERS

Brainerd Elks Lodge Receives Commendations from Grand Exalted Ruler of Order

THE OFFICERS' NOMINATIONS

Candidates Being Enrolled for a Class Initiation in Near Future, Special Team Named

Brainerd Lodge No. 615 of the Elks prides itself on the letter of commendation received from Grand Exalted Ruler Masters, based on the recent inspection made by District Deputy I. K. Lewis of Duluth. The letter was read at Thursday's meeting and was greeted with applause.

Candidates are being gathered for a class initiation in the near future and sensing the need of a thorough initiation with nothing omitted a motion carried that a special committee of five be appointed to see that this is all carried out.

Thomas McGarry, well known Brainerd boy stationed in marine service at Washington, D. C., was given the obligation and in his talk following paid a high tribute to the Elks. By next class initiation four McGarry brothers will be members of the Elks.

Exalted Ruler J. J. Nolan, sick for some time at a local hospital, is regaining his health and has been removed to his home. It was reported. These officers were nominated for the next term:

Exalted Ruler—John A. Hoffbauer.
Esteemed Leading Knight—Dr. A. K. Cohen.

Esteemed Loyal Knight—Roland G. Jenkins.

Esteemed Lecturing Knight—Walter F. Kunitz.

Secretary—John J. Cummins.

Treasurer—B. L. Lagerquist.

Trustee—Fred Allison.

Tyler—C. D. Johnson.

Delegate to National Convention at Atlanta, Georgia—William V. Turcotte.

Alternate—C. D. Johnson.

Delegates to State Convention at Hibbing, (3 to be elected) Walter F. Kunitz, Fred Allison, Clyde E. Parker, V. C. Roderick and Roland G. Jenkins.

Alternates—E. J. Quinn, L. W. Smith and A. W. Fall.

The lodge voiced its sympathy for brother R. D. King, whose mother recently died in Duluth.

A. P. Drogseth reported on the Bush fans banquet given under Elks auspices and many expressions were made concerning its wonderful success and the fact that Joe Bullett, member of Philadelphia lodge No. 2, treasured it as one of the most wonderful tributes accorded him.

HAD A HEAVY PART

Tom Wood in Film Comedy "Holy Smoke" and Personal Appearance at New Park

Tom Wood took a "heavy part," both in the film comedy, "Holy Smoke," and in a personal appearance at the New Park theatre Thursday evening.

Tom took the part of a heavy-weight guest at the hotel, and caused much merriment by putting the elevator out of commission. He also sang and danced his way more firmly than ever into the hearts of his many Brainerd friends, who were more than generous with their applause. And Tom deserved every bit of it, too.

The comedian entertained his hearers first with numerous funny stories, and closed his bill with three of the late song hits, sung as only he is able to sing them. His dancing have made the Dolly sisters turn in connection with the songs would green with envy.

Exceptionally large houses greeted Brainerd's own movie star at both the seven and nine o'clock shows, packing the house to its capacity. Standing room was at a premium before eight o'clock.

"Hurricane's Gal" finished the well balanced program and created quite a sensation with its many thrills and numerous climaxes. The same bill, with Tow Wood better than ever, is to be repeated this evening.

DEMPSEY SEEKS REFUGE IN MOVIES

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Sports Editor

New York, Feb. 16.—As long as governors, boxing commissions and a large part of the public persist in the attitude that his case is one of only trivial importance, Jack Dempsey might just as well retire from the ring. There is little else for him to do right now.

Just now Dempsey is up against the same thing that caused Jim Jeffries to go into retirement, only that Jeff didn't have any opponents to keep him busy and there is something wrong with the few that Dempsey has in his division. Willard is too old, Johnson is too young, Gibbons is too light and Willis is too dark.

Dempsey will not weep at the unkind fates that keep him from getting into the ring, however. Perhaps he considers himself fortunate. So long as he stays away from an arena, he will retain his title and if he keeps away from his profession long enough, parts of the public might forget that he is the champion prize fighter.

The champion, who is now a wealthy man, is not keen any more about the company that he was once associated with in the tenebrous ranks. He would much rather be known as a young business man. When he returned recently from California many of his old cronies found that Jack was cooling on them and many of his staunchest supporters in the early days when he didn't have anything and needed everything are wailing that he is giving them the Ritz now.

Dempsey really thinks now that he is an actor and, if he can't pick up a million for an afternoon's work in the ring, he will confine his work to the movies where the pay is almost as good.

There were no movies in the old days. When a champion got too good he had to quit and go into the saloon business. In these days of opportunities, however, Dempsey can find enough wherever he places his hands.

Beneh Leonard, the lightweight champion, is another prominent actor among the pugilistic prominent. Beneh is a newcomer to Broadway, but he had a lot of experience around the country when he was a member of the popular dancing act of Leonard and Dundee.

Only one other act was more popular and had a longer run and that was Britton and Lewis.

AMUSEMENTS

"Oliver Twist" Proves One of the Screen's Biggest

As the engagement of little Jackie Coogan in "Oliver Twist" draws near at the New Park where it will be shown on Saturday and Sunday, the impression gains strength that this is one of the biggest and most notable picture products yet created for the screen.

Not only in the "size" of the production, but in its "intimacy," is art value being recognized; not only does it appeal to the youngsters, but to the matured as well.

It seems to be as nearly perfect as a picture play can be, an entertainment for everybody. Even the pedant and library bookworm, for whom the theatre usually exerts but the slightest influence, is concerned with "Oliver Twist" to see in what manner the literary spirit of Charles Dickens is set forth upon the screen and by what processes of elimination the narrative as composed by the immortal novelist has been applied to reduce the story matter to the limits of a screen presentation.

Dorothy Dalton at Lyceum Tonight in "The Crimson Challenge"

The Story—In Lost Valley, which is "governed" by Buck Courtney, cattle thief and a regular bad man, Theron Last, daughter of a rancher, is the idol of the settlers. Buck covets her, and one day, in a quarrel, slays her father. Theron vows vengeance. She carries out a promise exacted by her father on his death bed that she will become the best shot in the valley. Her adventures in "getting" Buck form the rest of the action. There is a charming romance woven through the plot.

Classification—A romantic Western melo-drama with a hard-riding, two-gunned heroine.

Production Highlights—The fine Western settings. The good acting of the star and her supporting players. The melodramatic scenes, including some real gun battles, horse racing and cattle rustling. Miss Dalton's refreshingly original role. Excellent Western types.

Star Has Intense Role in "Hurricane's Gal"

Dorothy Phillips, one of the popular stars of the motion picture screen whose attainment as an emotional actress have been previously revealed in Allen Holubar's productions from "Hearts of Humanity" to "Man-Woman-Marriage," as star of Mr. Holubar's latest First National release, "Hurricane's Gal," which will be shown at the New Park last time tonight. The production has been personally directed by Mr. Holubar, who also adapted the story from a narrative by Harvey Gates.

Miss Phillips has the role of a wild, untamed girl of the sea, who inherited from her Irish father a Mentho-Sulphur, a pleasant cream, will soothe and heal skin that is irritated or broken out with eczema; that is covered with ugly rash or pimples, or is rough or dry. Nothing subdues fiery skin eruptions so quickly, says a noted skin specialist.

The moment this sulphur preparation is applied the itching stops and after two or three applications, the eczema is gone and the skin is delightfully clear and smooth. Sulphur is so precious as a skin remedy because it destroys the parasites that cause the burning, itching or disfigurement. Mentho-Sulphur always heals eczema right up.

Should a Bank Loan Money for Advertising

by FESTUS J. WADE

President, MERCANTILE TRUST COMPANY of St. Louis

WHEN we strike at advertising, meaning, of course, efficiently applied advertising, we strike at salesmanship, and the heart of business. For the banker to do anything to retard business right now is suicide.

When the merchant pulls down his shingle and waits for business to come to him in a buyers' market, we laugh at him, and call him a poor business man.

When he is forced to cut down one of his best methods of selling because his banker considers advertising an unnecessary item of expense and refuses an otherwise deserved loan purely on that principle, it is my humble opinion that we should laugh at the banker, and feel sorry for the merchant.

Don't mistake my meaning. It is a basic banking principle that a loan must be well secured, and a firm cannot borrow merely because it is a big and successful advertiser. But the fact that it is a believer in advertising and wants to use a portion of the money for that purpose should never stand in its way when it calls on the Bank's credit department.

DEMPSEY SEEKS REFUGE IN MOVIES

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Sports Editor

New York, Feb. 16.—As long as governors, boxing commissions and a large part of the public persist in the attitude that his case is one of only trivial importance, Jack Dempsey might just as well retire from the ring. There is little else for him to do right now.

Just now Dempsey is up against the same thing that caused Jim Jeffries to go into retirement, only that Jeff didn't have any opponents to keep him busy and there is something wrong with the few that Dempsey has in his division. Willard is too old, Johnson is too young, Gibbons is too light and Willis is too dark.

Dempsey will not weep at the unkind fates that keep him from getting into the ring, however. Perhaps he considers himself fortunate. So long as he stays away from an arena, he will retain his title and if he keeps away from his profession long enough, parts of the public might forget that he is the champion prize fighter.

The champion, who is now a wealthy man, is not keen any more about the company that he was once associated with in the tenebrous ranks. He would much rather be known as a young business man. When he returned recently from California many of his old cronies found that Jack was cooling on them and many of his staunchest supporters in the early days when he didn't have anything and needed everything are wailing that he is giving them the Ritz now.

Dempsey really thinks now that he is an actor and, if he can't pick up a million for an afternoon's work in the ring, he will confine his work to the movies where the pay is almost as good.

There were no movies in the old days. When a champion got too good he had to quit and go into the saloon business. In these days of opportunities, however, Dempsey can find enough wherever he places his hands.

Benneh Leonard, the lightweight champion, is another prominent actor among the pugilistic prominent. Benneh is a newcomer to Broadway, but he had a lot of experience around the country when he was a member of the popular dancing act of Leonard and Dundee.

Only one other act was more popular and had a longer run and that was Britton and Lewis.

AMUSEMENTS

"Oliver Twist" Proves One of the Screen's Biggest

As the engagement of little Jackie Coogan in "Oliver Twist" draws near at the New Park where it will be shown on Saturday and Sunday, the impression gains strength that this is one of the biggest and most notable picture products yet created for the screen.

Not only in the "size" of the pro-

Jackie Coogan
in "Oliver Twist"

duction, but in its "intimacy," is art value being recognized; not only does it appeal to the youngsters, but to the matured as well.

It seems to be as nearly perfect as a picture play can be, an entertainment for everybody, even the pedant and library bookworm, for whom the theatre usually exerts but the slightest influence, is concerned with "Oliver Twist" to see in what manner the literary spirit of Charles Dickens is set forth upon the screen and by what processes of elimination the narrative as composed by the immortal novelist have been applied to reduce the story matter to the limits of a screen presentation.

Dorothy Dalton at Lyceum Tonight in "The Crimson Challenge"

The Story—In Lost Valley, which is "governed" by Buck Courtney, cattle thief and a regular bad man. Tharon Last, daughter of a rancher, is the idol of the settlers. Buck covets her, and one day, in a quarrel, slays her father. Tharon vows vengeance. She carries out a promise exacted by her father on his death bed that she will become the best shot in the valley. Her adventures in "getting" Buck form the rest of the action. There is a charming romance woven through the plot.

Classification—A romantic Western melo-drama with a hard-riding, two-gunned heroine.

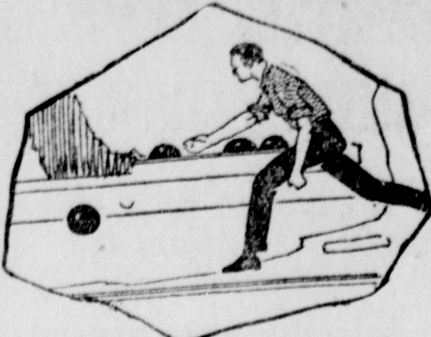

Production Highlights—The fine Western settings. The good acting of the star and her supporting players. The melodramatic scenes, including some real gun battles, horse racing and cattle rustling. Miss Dalton's refreshingly original role. Excellent Western types.

Star Has Intense Role in "Hurricane's Gal"

Dorothy Phillips, one of the popular stars of the motion picture screen whose attainment as an emotional actress have been previously revealed in Allen Holubar's productions from "Hearts of Humanity" to "Man-Woman-Marriage," as star of Mr. Holubar's latest First National release, "Hurricane's Gal," which will be shown at the New Park last time tonight. The production has been personally directed by Mr. Holubar, who also adapted the story from a narrative by Harvey Gates.

Miss Phillips has the role of a wild, untamed girl of the sea, who inherited from her Irish father a

The latest style in footwear for milady is the Russian boot, which seems likely to replace the galoshes for popularity. These boots are made in many styles and colors, ranging from black to a bright red, and are marked with many fancy designs. FIERY, ITCHING SKIN IS QUICKLY SOOTHED WITH THIS SULPHUR

Mentho-Sulphur, a pleasant cream, will soothe and heal skin that is irritated or broken out with eczema; that is covered with ugly rash or pimples, or is rough or dry. Nothing subdues fiery skin eruptions so quickly, says a noted skin specialist.

The moment this sulphur preparation is applied the itching stops and after two or three applications, the eczema is gone and the skin is delightfully clear and smooth. Sulphur is so precious as a skin remedy because it destroys the parasites that cause the burning, itching or disfigurement. Mentho-Sulphur always heals eczema right up.

A small jar of Rowles Mentho-Sulphur may be had at any good drug store.—Advt.

Should a Bank Loan Money for Advertising

by FESTUS J. WADE

President, MERCANTILE TRUST COMPANY of St. Louis

WHEN we strike at advertising, meaning, of course, efficiently applied advertising, we strike at salesmanship, and the heart of business. For the banker to do anything to retard business right now is suicide.

When the merchant pulls down his shingle and waits for business to come to him in a buyers' market, we laugh at him, and call him a poor business man.

When he is forced to cut down one of his best methods of selling because his banker considers advertising an unnecessary item of expense and refuses an otherwise deserved loan purely on that principle, it is my humble opinion that we should laugh at the banker, and feel sorry for the merchant.

Don't mistake my meaning. It is a basic banking principle that a loan must be well secured, and a firm cannot borrow merely because it is a big and successful advertiser. But the fact that it is a believer in advertising and wants to use a portion of the money for that purpose should never stand in its way when it calls on the Bank's credit department.
